

Privacy Policy for SleepCheap

1. Data We Collect

We collect minimal data, including user email addresses when necessary to provide access to discounted hotel room options and to send booking confirmation emails.

We do not store user email addresses in a structured database. However, the emails sent to users will be stored as part of our legal obligations.

2. Use of Collected Data

User email addresses are solely used to send confirmation emails with a link to the discounted hotel room. We do not sell or share user data with any third parties.

When completing the payment, users are redirected to PayPal, where they log in using their own credentials. We do not share any user data with PayPal.

3. Data Sharing

We do not share any personal data with PayPal or any other third-party services. Users are redirected to PayPal for payment processing, where they will need to log in using their own PayPal credentials. No data from our extension is transmitted to PayPal.

4. Data Retention

Although we do not store email addresses in a structured database, the emails sent to users will be retained for up to 10 years in compliance with the legal obligations under the German Abgabenordnung (AO) and Handelsgesetzbuch (HGB). This retention period is required for record-keeping purposes, and after that period, all data is securely deleted.

5. Security

We use secure servers and encryption to protect data during transmission and storage. We adhere to industry-standard security protocols to ensure that user data is handled securely.

6. User Rights

Users have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of their personal data at any time. To make such a request, users can contact us at info@cryptochest.de

7. Contact Information

For any questions or concerns regarding our privacy practices, please contact us at info@cryptochest.de
